

Testimonials from Students

“Ane Molina is an exceptional professor who has a forward-thinking approach to education. During my time with her, she presented me with innovative concepts and ideas that I still apply in my work and professional life today. Ane is a skilled educator who employs various teaching methods to explain complex and abstract concepts. I highly recommend Ane as a professor because even after a decade has passed since I took her classes, I still recall the lessons with the same passion she demonstrated when teaching.”

—Rodrigo Mendes (student in 2011)

“My first graduation was almost ten years ago, and Ane was my professor. She is an exceptional educator who leaves a lasting impact on her students. Ane not only masterfully teaches the class syllabus but also serves as an opinion leader. Without a doubt, students gain another excellent professor who inspires them.”

—André Faleiros (student in 2013)

“Anelise is passionate about teaching and always makes herself available to her students. She has a unique way of sharing her knowledge with understanding, care, and empathy, which makes her students feel valued and supported.”

—Ariane Melo (student in 2015)

“During my time in college, Anelise Molina was an exceptional professor who always emphasized the importance of looking at things from different angles. She inspired us to explore various perspectives, which led to several projects. Anelise brought her vast experience to the classroom and was a true master of her craft. She was also incredibly approachable, friendly, and empathetic towards her students. Anelise encouraged us to connect our learning with personal lives, always offering guidance and support. As a person, she possesses incredible talents and is loved by many. Anelise is intelligent, positive, courageous, and caring..”

—Victor Lacerda (student in 2015)

“Professor Molina's teaching approach greatly inspired me. She not only taught me various subjects but also encouraged me to develop a critical and attentive mindset. Her guidance helped me gain perspective and develop skills that enabled me to actively participate in the world and become a better professional.”
